HOW DO YOU ENVISION YOUR IDEAL GOLF COURSE? NOW, HOW DO YOU MAKE IT A REALITY?

Your golf course is more than just a piece of land: it's where your vision takes form. It's a work in progress that is constantly evolving under your attention and care. While it is also more than just a business, it is still subject to the economic climate.

The Canadian International Turfgrass Conference & Trade Show is there to feed your inspiration and nurture your vision. It's where you'll find the ideas, tools, contacts and strategies to make your projects a reality and improve your course's operational efficiencies, from staffing to maintenance and product use.

From February 26 to March 2, 2010, golf course management professionals from across North America will gather in Toronto for the annual Canadian International Turfgrass Conference & Trade Show. This year's conference promises to be the most exciting ever. See details about our educational program and our celebrity keynote speaker, Peter Mansbridge, who promises to be one of the event's highlights.

The International Turfgrass Conference & Trade Show is presented jointly by the Canadian Golf Superintendents Association (CGSA) and the Ontario Golf Superintendents' Association (OGSA). It combines a unique program, exciting networking events and a one-of-a-kind trade show—all geared to helping golf course managers deliver value to their property. Don't miss it!
